Meridian Trust Names New Rawlins Branch Manager

Cheyenne, WY— Meridian Trust Federal Credit Union has announced that Jeanne Stapleton will be the new Vice President / Branch Manager of the Rawlins branch. Ms. Stapleton will oversee service to members, staff management and training, and all daily branch operations, as well as business development and community relations.

Jeanne Stapleton

“Jeanne is the perfect fit in working with our fantastic Rawlins Team. The game changer for financial institutions is to have a top-notch team that is energetic and engaged in working with our membership. Our Rawlins Branch Team continues this commitment with Jeanne,” said Kim Withers, CEO.

Ms. Stapleton has over 22 years of financial services experience and has been with Meridian Trust for 2 years. She has completed Rex Johnson’s University of Lending, the Mike Neil & Associates School of Service, the Rocky Mountain Credit Union Association/Peregrine Leadership Institute, and attended the CUNA (Credit Union National Association) Mutual Member Loyalty Group. She has served on the boards of the Lion’s Club of Casper and the Casper Chamber of Commerce. She is currently seeking to transfer membership to the Lion’s Club of Rawlins and join other committees in the Rawlins area.

Meridian Trust Federal Credit Union provides financial services to more than 22,000 members, with Wyoming branches in Cheyenne, Lander, Rawlins, and Jackson, along with a branch in Scottsbluff, NE; and PowerTrust branches located in Casper and Rock Springs, WY.
