

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

August 26, 2020

For More Information, Contact
Shannon Helmuth, 307.633.6417
shelmuth@MyMeridianTrust.com

Meridian Trust Donates 150 Reusable Masks to Scottsbluff Public Schools

Scottsbluff, NE – Meridian Trust Federal Credit Union has donated 150 reusable face masks to Scottsbluff Public Schools to help students and staff during the COVID-19 pandemic.

The donation is part of an organizational effort to provide reusable face masks to local communities across Wyoming, Nebraska, and Colorado. Donations are being made by all Meridian Trust branches to community organizations. In total, 3,000 reusable face masks are being donated.

“The well-being of our members and our community have always been our primary focus. We saw a need for face masks in our public schools, and we’re glad we had the opportunity to help during this time,” said Jackie Hoff, branch manager at Meridian Trust’s Scottsbluff Branch.

For members who are facing financial difficulties, Meridian Trust is also offering COVID-19 assistance. Assistance comes in the form of a variety of options. These include the ability to skip a loan payment, the waiving of early withdrawal fees on CDs for full or partial withdrawals of funds, and other financial assistance.

Members in need of assistance can stop into a Meridian Trust Federal Credit Union branch location, call 800-726-5644 or visit MyMeridianTrust.com for more information.

###

Meridian Trust Federal Credit Union provides financial services to more than 30,000 members, with Wyoming branches in Cheyenne, Lander, Jackson, Rawlins, and Yellowstone, along with a Nebraska branch in Scottsbluff, a Colorado branch in Wellington; and PowerTrust branches located in Casper and Rock Springs, WY. For more information, visit www.MyMeridianTrust.com.*

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

August 28, 2020

For More Information, Contact
Shannon Helmuth, 307.633.6417
shelmuth@MyMeridianTrust.com

Meridian Trust Donates 400 Reusable Masks to Wellington Schools

Wellington, CO – Meridian Trust Federal Credit Union has donated a total of 400 reusable face masks to Wellington’s Eyestone Elementary, Rice Elementary and Wellington Middle School to help students and staff during the COVID-19 pandemic.

The donations are part of an organizational effort to provide reusable face masks to local communities across Wyoming, Nebraska, and Colorado. Donations are being made by all Meridian Trust branches to community organizations. In total, 3,000 reusable face masks are being donated.

“Giving back to the communities we serve is important to Meridian Trust, and the Wellington branch is honored to make this donation. Our whole team lives in the Wellington area, and we take pride in supporting our local schools,” said Nic Redavid, VP branch manager at Meridian Trust’s Wellington Branch.

For members who are facing financial difficulties, Meridian Trust is also offering COVID-19 assistance. Assistance comes in the form of a variety of options. These include the ability to skip a loan payment, the waiving of early withdrawal fees on CDs for full or partial withdrawals of funds, and other financial assistance.

Members in need of assistance can stop into a Meridian Trust Federal Credit Union branch location, call 800-726-5644 or visit MyMeridianTrust.com for more information.

###

Meridian Trust Federal Credit Union provides financial services to more than 30,000 members, with Wyoming branches in Cheyenne, Lander, Jackson, Rawlins, and Yellowstone, along with a Nebraska branch in Scottsbluff, a Colorado branch in Wellington; and PowerTrust branches located in Casper and Rock Springs, WY. For more information, visit www.MyMeridianTrust.com.*

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

August 28, 2020

For More Information, Contact
Shannon Helmuth, 307.633.6417
shelmuth@MyMeridianTrust.com

Meridian Trust/PowerTrust Donates 400 Reusable Masks to Casper Non-Profits

Casper, WY – Meridian Trust Federal Credit Union/PowerTrust has donated a total of 400 reusable face masks to Casper non-profits including the Boys and Girls Club of Central Wyoming, Habitat for Humanity, the Wyoming Rescue Mission, and the Self Help Center to help them during the COVID-19 pandemic.

The donations are part of an organizational effort to provide reusable face masks to local communities across Wyoming, Nebraska, and Colorado. Donations are being made by all Meridian Trust/PowerTrust branches to community organizations. In total, 3,000 reusable face masks are being donated.

“The pandemic has changed the way we look at the world. At Meridian Trust we seek to help our members achieve their financial goals and dreams through: Personal Connections, Simple Solutions, Lifetime Relationships. What better way to connect with our community than to help our fellow members. This past week delivering masks to the Boys and Girls Club of Central Wyoming, Habitat for Humanity, the Wyoming Rescue Mission and the Self Help Center has been a humbling, yet hopeful experience,” said Crystal Bratvold, branch manager at Meridian Trust/PowerTrust’s Casper Branch.

For members who are facing financial difficulties, Meridian Trust is also offering COVID-19 assistance. Assistance comes in the form of a variety of options. These include the ability to skip a loan payment, the waiving of early withdrawal fees on CDs for full or partial withdrawals of funds, and other financial assistance.

Members in need of assistance can stop into a Meridian Trust Federal Credit Union branch location, call 800-726-5644 or visit MyMeridianTrust.com for more information.

#

Meridian Trust Federal Credit Union provides financial services to more than 30,000 members, with Wyoming branches in Cheyenne, Lander, Jackson, Rawlins, and Yellowstone, along with a Nebraska branch in Scottsbluff, a Colorado branch in Wellington; and PowerTrust branches located in Casper and Rock Springs, WY. For more information, visit www.MyMeridianTrust.com.*

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

August 31, 2020

For More Information, Contact
Shannon Helmuth, 307.633.6417
shelmuth@MyMeridianTrust.com

Meridian Trust Donates 1,500 Reusable Masks to Gardiner School District

Yellowstone, WY – Meridian Trust Federal Credit Union has donated 1,500 reusable face masks to the Gardiner School District to help students and staff during the COVID-19 pandemic.

The donation is part of an organizational effort to provide reusable face masks to local communities across Wyoming, Nebraska, and Colorado. Donations are being made by all Meridian Trust branches to community organizations. In total, 3,000 reusable face masks are being donated.

“Here at Meridian Trust, we show up for the communities that we serve – especially during times like these. The students and staff of the Gardiner School District are facing new challenges every day. It’s our hope that this donation provides some relief during the school year,” said Martha Powell, branch manager at Meridian Trust’s Yellowstone Branch.

For members who are facing financial difficulties, Meridian Trust is also offering COVID-19 assistance. Assistance comes in the form of a variety of options. These include the ability to skip a loan payment, the waiving of early withdrawal fees on CDs for full or partial withdrawals of funds, and other financial assistance.

Members in need of assistance can stop into a Meridian Trust Federal Credit Union branch location, call 800-726-5644 or visit MyMeridianTrust.com for more information.

###

Meridian Trust Federal Credit Union provides financial services to more than 30,000 members, with Wyoming branches in Cheyenne, Lander, Jackson, Rawlins, and Yellowstone, along with a Nebraska branch in Scottsbluff, a Colorado branch in Wellington; and PowerTrust branches located in Casper and Rock Springs, WY. For more information, visit www.MyMeridianTrust.com.*

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

September 1, 2020

For More Information, Contact
Shannon Helmuth, 307.633.6417
shelmuth@MyMeridianTrust.com

Meridian Trust/PowerTrust Donates 50 Reusable Masks to Hospice of Sweetwater County

Rock Springs, WY – Meridian Trust Federal Credit Union/PowerTrust has donated 50 reusable face masks to Hospice of Sweetwater County to help them during the COVID-19 pandemic.

The donations are part of an organizational effort to provide reusable face masks to local communities across Wyoming, Nebraska, and Colorado. Donations are being made by all Meridian Trust/PowerTrust branches to community organizations. In total, 3,000 reusable face masks are being donated.

“Lending a hand in the communities that we serve is important to Meridian Trust. The pandemic has caused hardships for many, and we are honored to do our part by providing this donation of face masks to Hospice of Sweetwater County,” said Pam Schumacher, area manager at Meridian Trust/PowerTrust’s Rock Springs Branch.

For members who are facing financial difficulties, Meridian Trust is also offering COVID-19 assistance. Assistance comes in the form of a variety of options. These include the ability to skip a loan payment, the waiving of early withdrawal fees on CDs for full or partial withdrawals of funds, and other financial assistance.

Members in need of assistance can stop into a Meridian Trust Federal Credit Union branch location, call 800-726-5644 or visit MyMeridianTrust.com for more information.

###

Meridian Trust Federal Credit Union provides financial services to more than 30,000 members, with Wyoming branches in Cheyenne, Lander, Jackson, Rawlins, and Yellowstone, along with a Nebraska branch in Scottsbluff, a Colorado branch in Wellington; and PowerTrust branches located in Casper and Rock Springs, WY. For more information, visit www.MyMeridianTrust.com.*

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

September 14, 2020

For More Information, Contact
Shannon Helmuth, 307.633.6417
shelmuth@MyMeridianTrust.com

Meridian Trust Donates Masks to Rawlins Non-Profits

Rawlins, WY – Meridian Trust Federal Credit Union has donated a total of 280 reusable face masks to Rawlins non-profits. This includes the Boys and Girls Club of Carbon County and the Rawlins Rehabilitation and Wellness clinic to help them through the COVID-19 pandemic.

These donations are part of an organizational-wide effort to provide face masks to local communities across Wyoming, Nebraska, and Colorado. Donations are being made by all Meridian Trust branches to community organizations. In total, 3,000 reusable face masks are being donated.

“The Rawlins Meridian Trust branch is excited to have been able to make mask donations to two wonderful organizations in Rawlins, the Boys and Girls Club of Carbon County and the Rawlins Rehabilitation and Wellness clinic,” said Jeanne Stapleton, Vice President and Branch Manager at Meridian Trust’s Rawlins branch. “These organizations do so much for the residents of Rawlins, and our donations are just small gestures of appreciation for all they do.”

For members who are facing financial difficulties, Meridian Trust is also offering COVID-19 assistance. Assistance comes in the form of a variety of options. These include the ability to skip a loan payment, the waiving of early withdrawal fees on CDs for full or partial withdrawals of funds, and other financial assistance.

Members in need of assistance can stop into a Meridian Trust Federal Credit Union branch location, call 800-726-5644 or visit MyMeridianTrust.com for more information.

#

Meridian Trust Federal Credit Union provides financial services to more than 30,000 members, with Wyoming branches in Cheyenne, Lander, Jackson, Rawlins, and Yellowstone, along with a Nebraska branch in Scottsbluff, a Colorado branch in Wellington; and PowerTrust branches located in Casper and Rock Springs, WY. For more information, visit www.MyMeridianTrust.com.*