

NEWS RELEASE
For Immediate Release
October 11, 2016
For More Information, Contact
Ed Beckmann 307.633.6416
ebeckmann@mymeridiantrust.com

Meridian Trust FCU Donates $10,000 to Local Charities

Cheyenne, WY - Meridian Trust Federal Credit Union is donating $10,000 to local charities. This donation is part of Meridian Trust's celebration of "International Credit Union Day." Meridian Trust launched "The Real and Authentic Difference, the Credit Union Difference" a 22-day long program to designed to highlight the difference credit unions make in their communities. This program included events, rewards for members, and encouraged individuals to donate to local charities. With a physical presence across the state of Wyoming and into western Nebraska, local branch charities included the following:

- Cheyenne Downtown: Wyoming Family Home Ownership Program \(WYFHOP\)
- Cheyenne East: Court Appointed Special Advocates \(CASA\)
- Rawlins: Rawlins Lion's Club
- Lander: Fremont County Group Homes
- Jackson: Community Safety Network
- Rock Springs: Hospice of Sweetwater County
- Casper: Central Wyoming Counseling Center
- Scottsbluff, NE: Snow Angels

Meridian Trust collected $5,000 in contributions from members and the credit union is doing a full 100% match of those donations, to provide a total of $10,000 to these local organizations.

"The people in this organization are amazing to do all of this in just three weeks," said Kim Withers, Meridian Trust CEO. "This is what makes us the real and authentic difference."

Meridian Trust Federal Credit Union provides financial services to more than 25,000 members, with Wyoming branches in Cheyenne, Lander, Rawlins, and Jackson, along with a branch in Scottsbluff, NE; and PowerTrust branches located in Casper and Rock Springs, WY. For more information, visit www.MyMeridianTrust.com.