

NEWS RELEASE

For Immediate Release

May 2, 2017

For More Information, Contact

Ed Beckmann 307.633.6416

ebeckmann@MyMeridianTrust.com

MERIDIAN TRUST CEO RECOGNIZED FOR ADVOCACY

CHEYENNE, WY – Meridian Trust Federal Credit Union CEO Kim Withers has been presented with the award for being the “Legislative and Political Coordinator of the Year” by the Mountain West Credit Union Association (MWCUA).

The MWCUA is the regional credit union trade association representing 125 separate credit unions, $34 billion in assets, and 3.1 million credit union members throughout the states of Arizona, Colorado and Wyoming.

“This award is in recognition and appreciation for Kim’s outstanding contribution to the Mountain West Credit Union Association’s nationally recognized Advocacy Program,” said Christopher Kemm, Vice President of Political Affairs for the MWCUA. “Kim’s efforts and dedication in Wyoming to the effective and efficient operation of the Mountain West Credit Union Association’s Advocacy Program has contributed to the Credit Union movement’s success and is a credit to her and has not gone unnoticed. We thank Kim for the strength and unity she brings to the Credit Union movement.”

Kim Withers has a doctorate in banking and finance. She has served Meridian Trust since 1991, and has been CEO since 1994.

In addition, Meridian Trust Federal Credit Union was presented with an award for being the “2016 Advocacy Team of the Year” for the state of Wyoming.

#

Meridian Trust Federal Credit Union provides financial services to more than 27,000 members, with Wyoming branches in Cheyenne, Lander, Rawlins, and Jackson, along with a Nebraska branch in Scottsbluff; and PowerTrust branches located in Casper and Rock Springs, WY. For more information, visit www.MyMeridianTrust.com.